Park plan reflects frontier heritage

PROPOSED
FRONTIER THEME
PLAYGROUND

Wild broncs, Indian tepees, and a covered wagon are returning to Sequoit Terrace. That is, the Antioch Park and Recreation Committee is recommending that the park they're planning in the area be organized around a frontier theme.

Located just off Alima Terrace, the park will have a playground area with frontier equipment, two tennis courts, and a general play area "for baseball, picnics, etc.," committee member Bruce Bartosz said.

The 2.8 acre park will not have a formal baseball diamond since the area is too small and too close to surrounding houses for safety, Bartosz said. The park is located on a lot 356 feet long by 300 feet wide.

Bartosz said the committee is looking for another plot of land to develop into a baseball and football complex. It hopes ultimately to create parks within walking distance of every area of the community.

The playground at the Sequoit Terrace park will feature a jungle gym shaped like a covered wagon, two slides, tepees, a tree house, a merry-go-round, horse swings, and bouncing "broncos." The committee wanted the park to recall Antioch's frontier heritage and the Sequoit Indian lore.

The playground is divided into separate areas for different age groups, and is intended to accommodate children from toddlers to ten-year-olds, Bartosz said. A pavilion near the toddler area is planned to protect mothers from the sun while they watch their children.

Equipment designed for use by older children has safeguards against smaller children, Bartosz noted. One 16-foot-long sliding board has a chain ladder the youngest children cannot master, and a roof that forces children to sit while they slide.

Playground equipment will cost about $5,600, Bartosz said. The tennis court area will include a half-court practice area.

Bartosz said the committee expects area residents to note little increase in noise when the park opens. "Children already get in there and use the area for play," he said.

and a two-thirds vote of the municipal officers, he said.

The Country Club land is contiguous to the village for all practical purposes, Rhode said, since owners of interve-

Village Attorney studies referendum

The Antioch Village Board of Trustees may not be required to hold a referendum on annexation of the Antioch Country Club, site of a proposed residential development. And even if it is held, the results of such a referendum would not be legally binding.

That is the opinion of Village Attorney Frank Rhode, at least. He said in an interview Tuesday that the petition the Board received August 6 calling for a referendum on annexation does not legally bind the Board to hold a referendum.

Rhode cautioned that his study of the petition and relevant court cases "is not 100 percent complete," but said he was reasonably sure of his view.

The attorney said there is nothing in the Illinois Revised Statutes section on annexation that requires a referendum. The law simply stipulates that owners of property contiguous to a municipality may be annexed by their own petition

Work is progressing rapidly on the Main Street Sanitary Sewer project. Gluth Brothers Construction Company has completed laying of pipe on that street, and it should be open to traffic soon. Meanwhile, pipe will be laid on First Street and Parkway Avenue. (Staff Photo)

Due to storm sewer installation First Street will be closed to Main Street. Please exit on Poplar Street or on North Avenue.

Child, 8, hit by truck, dies

Eight-year-old Robin S. Willemarch of Antioch died Saturday evening when she was struck by a truck on Lake Avenue. Robin apparently began crossing Lake Avenue about one mile north of Route 173, then turned back, according to John Amen of the Lake County Coroner's Office.

She was struck at 5:49 p.m. by a Ford van driven by George W. Primus of Box 394, Route 4, Antioch. Her body was carried over 17 feet, the Lake County Sheriff's office reported.

Robin was taken to Orchard Medical Clinic by the Antioch Rescue Squad, where she was pronounced dead at 6:15 p.m. by Dr. Abderholden. Robin was the daughter of Robert A. and Anita Willemarch of Box 741A, Route 3, Antioch.

Primus was driving north at the time of the incident. His van left 18 feet of skidmarks before the point where it hit the child, the Sheriff's office said.

A fourth grade student at Channel Lake Grade School,

Robin had resided in Lake Villa from 1967 until moving to Antioch in 1969.

Amen swore in a coroner's jury at the Strang Funeral Home in Antioch at 1:30 p.m. Sunday. Funeral services were held there Tuesday at 10 a.m. and interment was at Hillside Cemetery here.

Robin is survived by her parents, three brothers-Jeffrey, Robert, and Charles, and two sisters-Linda and Karen. Her maternal grandfather is Herbert Heinsoth of Des Plaines, Illinois, and her paternal grandparents are Robert A. and Catherine Willemarch of Round Lake, Illinois.

DEEP LAKE, 173 SITE OF SMASHUP

Two vehicles collided at the intersection of Deep Lake Road and Route 173 early Sunday morning when one of them failed to yield right of way, according to the Lake County Sheriff's office.

The four people in the cars were taken to Victory Memorial Hospital in Waukegan, but were not admitted for serious treatment, a hospital spokesman said.

Richard S. Tideman, 48, of Box 289, Route 2, Antioch, failed to yield right of way to Janie R. Pietrus, 23, of 5509 S. Kedzie, Chicago, the Sheriff's office reported. Tideman was northbound on Deep Lake Road. Pietrus was westbound on Route 173, with two passengers.

The cars collided at 12:58 a.m. Sunday.

MIDNIGHT MADNESS HITS ANTIOCH

Antioch goes mad Monday. Stores that closed peacefully at 5 p.m. will open again at 8 p.m. Citizens will walk about town in pajamas. Miss Illinois will lead a parade of animals up Main Street. And there will be a massive water fight in front of the Fire Department.

It's all part of what the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry calls "Midnight Madness." The event starts with a pet judging at 6:30 p.m. between the Canton Tea Garden and Bernadette's on Main Street.

After the judging, the pets will join a parade from Antioch Community High School to St. Peter's Church parking lot. Miss Illinois, Colleen Metternich, will lead the parade of pets, two Salvation Army bands, and youth organizations. The bands will concert at 8:45 and 9:15 p.m. under the water tower.

The water fights in the Fire Department driveway begin at 8:15 p.m. And at 10:30 p.m. the parking lot of the First National Bank will be the site of a pajama judging contest. Prizes include a savings bond and gift certificates donated by Antioch merchants.

During all this Antioch stores will remain open from 8 p.m. to Midnight. That is the method in the Chamber of Commerce's madness.

The parade route stretches from ACHS, north on Main Street, and west on Orchard past the plaza. Youth groups in the parade will compete for prizes awarded for the best rendition of the central theme of the evening: "Madness on Parade."

ning property have expressed an interest in annexation.

Rhode did not that, under the Elections Code in the Illinois Revised Statutes, citizens may use a petition to force public officers to submit matters of public policy to a referendum. But such petitions must observe certain legal procedures, he said.

The attorney said he believes the petition signed by 865 registered voters that Mrs. Carol Jester presented to a Board at its August 6 meeting may not have followed those procedures. If so, it may be "defective," he said.

Rhode also believes that annexation is not formally "a matter of public policy," and says there are court cases to support his view.

He stressed that nothing appears to bar the village board from holding a referendum to disclose public opinion of an annexation. But the Board, in his view, is not required to hold a referendum, or to abide by its results if it does.

Signers of the petition contacted by the News insisted that the proposed Country Club annexation is a matter of public concern, if not public policy.

Dr. Robert A. Barnes stated that the annexation would affect "Our school systems, which are already bogged down and in the red, the sewage system which the town would have to support, the police department, fire department coverage, overcrowded streets in the present village with inadequate parking, and our inadequate medical facilities."

A fair to benefit the Antioch Rescue Squad was held on Saturday, August 5th in the Lemke's back yard. They offered a few games, a gypsy fortune teller, a white elephant sale and refreshments. The kids collected a total of $50.00 in change and bills and are shown presenting the money to a squad member. ### Park Committee deserves applause

The Antioch Citizens Committee on Parks and Playgrounds plan for a park in Sequoit Terrace appears on the front page of this issue. Though the committee is now barely two months old, its plan for this park and its plans for parks throughout the village show careful work and foresight.

The Sequoit Terrace park has a playground designed to protect, as well as amuse children. It is divided into four "pads" that will help keep the bigger kids away from the toddlers. The committee even thought to provide a pavilion to protect mothers from the hot sun!

The committee decided that this park was too small to safely include a formal baseball diamond, and left much of the area an open field for informal ball playing of all sorts.

At the same time, the committee recognizes that the present Little League ball park is overcrowded, and plans a whole new baseball facility -- one large enough to also see use by football teams.

Ultimately, the committee hopes to provide parks within walking distance (an important criteria) for every area of Antioch.

This is an example of the kind of long range, thoughtful planning a growing community needs to adequately serve its citizens.

What is remarkable about the Parks and Playgrounds committee is that it is a citizens' group, consisting of seven community members and one member of the Village Board of Trustees. The committee itself is an example of citizens working together to build a better future for themselves, and their community.

Members of the committee are Chairman Cliff Houghton, Bruce Bartosz, Dick Kessler, Pat Lorenz, Eunice Mueller, Trustee Bill Seemann, Gigi Spittle, and Marsha Starcevic.

We believe they deserve Antioch's applause.

August 10, 1973

Dear Editor:

We who attended the August 6, 1973 Village Board meeting feel your reporter missed the main theme of the discussion. The major portion of your article was based on the legal aspect of the motion for a referendum on the Antioch Country Club. Actually this was only discussed for less than five minutes of the meeting. The main discussion of the meeting was "does the Village Board intend to live up to their obligation to represent the people?" They did this when a motion was made to accept the petition as read, was seconded and approved unanimously and; therefore, is legal. Why does your newspaper question the legality of the Board's decision to listen to the people?

Your newspaper has the privilege of printing one-sided, biased opinions in your editorial column in which you are free to express the editor's point of view. We feel you have overstepped this privilege and editorialized in your coverage of the August 6, 1973 Village Board meeting.

After reading the accurate reports of the meetings in the Waukegan-News-Sun and the Antioch Reporter, one wonders if your reporter attended and wrote about the same meeting.

We ask that this letter be printed in its entirety.

CAMPAIGN REFORMS PROPOSED

A heavy legislative agenda awaits the Congress following the August Recess. High on the agenda will be Campaign Reform legislation-generated in part by the so-called Watergate hearings.

While the Watergate or Ervin Committee appears to go far afield much of the time--encouraged in part by the massive TV coverage--the committee's mandate is limited to an investigation to determine whether existing laws affecting campaign financing and activities are adequate.

The U.S. Senate without awaiting any report from the committee has passed the Federal Elections Campaign Act of 1973 (S. 372). This far reaching legislation would limit individual contributions to political parties or candidates to $25 thousand and would restrict the total cost of any Senate race to $175 thousand and provide a House campaign cutoff of $90 thousand.

Other changes of special significance include a provision for repealing the so-called Equal Time requirements in all federal elections for that debates between major party candidates might be carried by radio and TV without the necessity of granting free time to independent or minor party contenders.

Cash contributions in excess of $50 would be outlawed in favor of a requirement that all contributions of $50 or more would be required to be made by check or money order.

The new law would prevent parallel or separate committees for the election or reelection of candidates--thus eliminating such organizations as the "Committee to Reelect the President" which housed the primary culprits in the Watergate fiasco.

The new law would require full disclosure of outside income and assets of Members of Congress, as well as all federal employees making $25 thousand or more per year. While this might have the effect of discouraging persons of wealth from seeking federal public office--or assuming federal employment--the clamor for full disclosure for candidates' finances appears to be an inevitable requirement of any new campaign reform legislation.

Most of the provisions of the Senate passed bill have been recommended by a House Republican Task Force. And, this Member of Congress is cosponsor of similar tough campaign reform legislation.

Hearings before the House Administration Committee are scheduled to begin in September without the likelihood that a campaign reform bill will be acted upon before the end of the year.

ACHS GRAD SEES WORLD- FOR CREDIT

Taffy Engelhardt won't go to college this September like many other graduates of Antioch Community High School. Instead, she will go to college aboard the SS Universe Afloat, a floating campus that visits Hawaii and seven foreign countries.

Taffy recently received the $3,995 scholarship ACHS won in competition with 27 area high schools in WSNS-TV's Olympic Games. The scholarship covers the cost of the World Campus Abroad voyage, books, and transportation.

Taffy will receive college credit from Chapman College in Orange, Ca., while she visits

TAFFY ENGELHARDT

Honolulu, the Fiji Islands, Indonesia, Thailand, Australia, New Zealand, Singapore, Formosa, Korea, Hong Kong, and Japan. She will spend 45 percent of her time in port, ten percent of it on planned tours, and in study and discussion with foreign students.

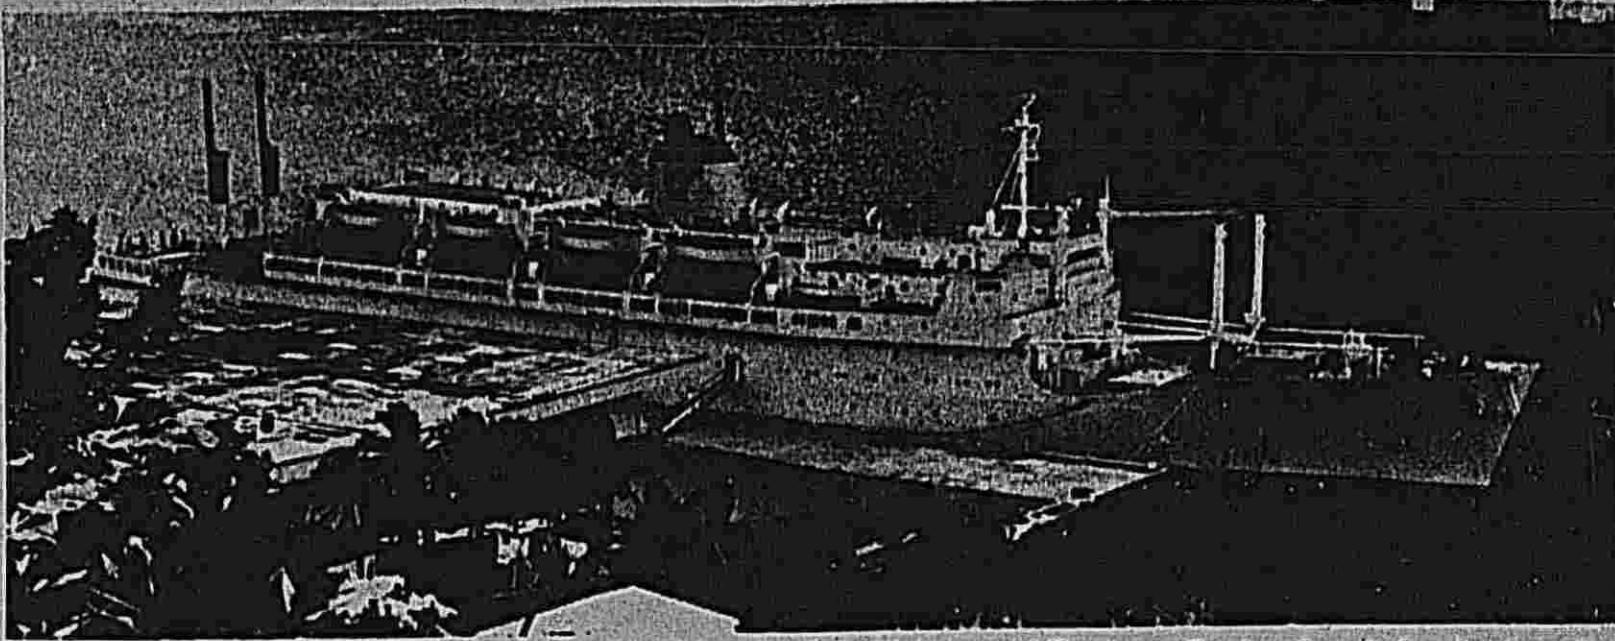

Professors from all over the world teach the courses, and 450 students from all 50 states will be aboard.

"Even if you didn't study, if you just opened your eyes, you'd have to learn something," Taffy said. "But I do plan to study," she added.

She will take courses in English, journalism, psychology, economics, and philosophy aboard ship. Activities offered on the floating campus include intermural sports, clubs, a newspaper—and even a yearbook.

The cruise begins September 3 in Los Angeles and ends December 23. Taffy plans to attend the College of Lake County for a year or two after her return. She says her primary interest is in journalism and writing.

While in high school, Taffy wrote a column about ACHS for the News. She was also a cheerleader, an officer of the student council, was active in girl's athletics, and won the Alice E. Smith Scholarship at the school's honor day.

Taffy Engelhardt will sail away on this ship—the S.S. Universe Afloat—on September 3, beginning the fall semester of "college at sea." This ship will circle the Pacific Ocean, bringing Taffy and 450 other students back to Los Angeles on December 23.

Not all the time in the World College Afloat program is spent afloat. About half of the students' 112 days will be occupied with "in-port" discussions, tours, and other learning experiences.

MAYOR WILTON ATTENDS STATE FAIR

Robert Wilton, Mayor of Antioch was one of the more than 250 mayors or town representatives attending the Mayor's Day festivities on Saturday, August 11, at the Illinois State Fair.

The mayors and their wives enjoyed a program sponsored by the Illinois Municipal League.

Activities included a morning coffee at the Illinois Building on the fairgrounds hosted by the mayor of Springfield, William Telford, watched a WGN radio show with Orion Samuelson and the harness races at the Grandstand and attended the reception given by Governor Daniel Walker and other state officials in the afternoon at the Illinois Building.

Mayor Virgil Wikoff of Champaign, President of the League, Mayor William Waldmeire of Pekin, 1st Vice President and Steven Sargent, the Executive Director of the Illinois Municipal League were in charge of the program.

The Mayor's Day program was started a number of years ago by the Central Illinois Mayor's Group, with attending mayors numbering 40 or 50. This year has more than quadrupled that number which brought the largest number of mayors to the Mayor's Day at the Illinois State Fair.

Overload boat, two drown in Lake Marie

A married couple drowned Sunday afternoon in Lake Marie when their overloaded fishing boat capsized. Amos and Francis Huggins of 979 E. 100th St., Chicago, were fishing with two friends when the accident occurred.

RESIDENTS' MEMORIES AID HISTORY SOCIETY

"Did you ever expect Bob Jr. to become mayor when he was a kid?" Larry Leafblad of WKRS radio asked Bob Wilton Sr. Thursday.

"No, I didn't," answered the father of Antioch's mayor. Then he added that he himself served two terms on the village board, and was "head of every organization except St. Peter's."

Bob Sr. went on the air with his son and three other lifelong residents of Antioch to talk about the old days and help create interest in the formation of an historical society for the area.

Joe Horton remembered coming to Antioch in 1912 to work in the first garage here, a the corner of Lake and Victoria streets. Mrs. Horton recalled her father's blacksmith shop, once where the Moose Hall is today.

Miss Betty Lou Williams, head librarian of the Antioch Township Library, supplied the information that the Grice family had the first telephone and the first bathroom here.

"People came from all around to see the bathroom, I'm told. They didn't think it would work," Miss Williams said after the show.

Is the story true? According to Miss Williams, the key to preserving the truth about Antioch's history is an active historical society. She has long been interested in forming such a society, but she says the response to this idea by other residents is much stronger now than it was two years ago.

The Historical Society will hold its first meeting August 16 at 7:30 p.m. in the Antioch Township Library on Main Street. Mayor Wilton pledged support of the village board over the radio Thursday.

"I'd like to see some of the stories I've heard put on tape so they won't be lost," he said.

Even now "there's not much left," Miss Williams said. She regrets the loss of some older buildings, including the old library, an 1873 structure. An historical society would interview older residents to preserve their recollections, and urge younger residents to donate their ancestors' records and mementos instead of throwing them out, she said.

The changes occurring in Antioch could lead the village to forget its history, Miss Williams fears. "Children should know that this wasn't always a town of apartments," she said. "The kids should realize that we do have a heritage here."

Traffic moves freely again on Tiffany Road with completion of the resurfacing project. The road was graded and a two-inch layer of blacktop put down. In order to preserve the road, the Village Board is studying the enforcement of weight limits. (Staff Photo)

ROOSEVELT UNIVERSITY ANNOUNCES WAUKEGAN REGISTRATION

Registration for Roosevelt University's Waukegan graduate program in business administration for the fall semester will be held Sept. 10-13 from 6:30-9:00 p.m. at the Adult Evening School Office of Waukegan Township High School, Frank R. Harrison, division director, announced today.

Prospective students are urged to make early application for admission, to allow time for processing transcripts and completion of the admission test.

Applications for the admission test and additional information may be obtained from the Adult Evening School Office of Waukegan Township High School, 1011 W. Washington, St., Waukegan (623-6162) or from Professor Frank R. Harrison, Director, Waukegan Evening Division, Roosevelt University, 430 S. Michigan Ave., Chicago. (341-3821).

Roosevelt's Waukegan Graduate Division offers a program leading to the master of business administration degree with concentration in management. Offered in Lake County for the first time in 1971, the program is especially designed for the college graduate seeking an advanced degree, but unable to participate in full-time study. Through a planned sequence of 33 semester hours, part time graduate students may complete master's degree requirements in as little as two years.

Students with undergraduate degrees in engineering, arts and sciences, and other non-business fields can make up their business-study deficiencies by taking from 3 to 12 hours of background courses at the Waukegan center, thereby eliminating the necessity for additional undergraduate study.

The fall semester begins Monday, Sept. 17. Courses offered include: Theory and Cases in Financial Management, Administering Labor-Management Relations, The Economic Environment, Production Management, The Modern Corporation and the Industrial Economy. Classes will meet at the high school from 6:30-9:00 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

Department of Family Services expands

The Waukegan district office of the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services has opened new branch offices to better serve McHenry and Lake counties, according to Arthur Granzeier, administrator of the Waukegan office.

The Mundelein office, located at 309 N. Lake Ave., will serve the western half of Lake County west of Interstate 94.

The office at 224 W. Judd St. in Woodstock, the centrally located county seat, will be able to efficiently serve the entire McHenry county area.

The Waukegan office, too, has moved to a new location, 215 Water St., and will now concentrate on serving the metropolitan area of Lake County along Lake Michigan, east of Interstate 94.

Each branch office is staffed by social workers and a secretary and provides family counseling, work with unwed parents, protective services, follow-up on suspected child abuse, and services to foster children whose families live within the area.

In addition to casework, the Waukegan office retains responsibility in the two counties for licensing of foster homes, adoptive homes and day care facilities, utilization of home-makers and volunteer staff, resource development, and business functions.

REMEMBER WHEN? We don't, but we know that all it takes sometimes is a little reminder to jerk a memory and bring back recollections of those days gone by. Each week we print an old photo submitted by an Antioch resident. Some we will be able to identify. For others, we leave it to you to search your own mental scrapbook. Call us if you can identify a photo. Better yet, if you have a memorable photo to share, bring it in to the office.

COUGAR...BUILT BETTER TO GIVE YOU MORE

Cougar is not like anybody else's car. It's a luxury car that's also a sporty car, and it lives both lives beautifully.

Notable additions to Cougar's list of 1973 standard equipment are SelectShift automatic transmission and power front disc rear drum brakes, adding value to an already beautifully equipped car.

Another technical-area addition is inclusion on all Cougar models of front and rear bumper guards as standard equipment.

New exterior changes for '73 show a new, bright vertical-bar die-cast center grille and new grille texture on headlamp doors, to match the center grille design. At the rear, sequential turn signals also display a modified brightmetal grid texture.

FOX LAKE STATE BANK GIVES AWAY MONEY TREE

Sometimes it seems the only lasting solution to inflation is to own a money tree. Impossible? Fox Lake State Bank is giving one away in its grand opening celebration August 24 to September 1.

Founded in 1955, the bank has grown out of its present quarters at 55 E. Grand Avenue in Fox Lake, President Lloyd Dahlberg says. The grand opening celebrates the bank's new building at the same address.

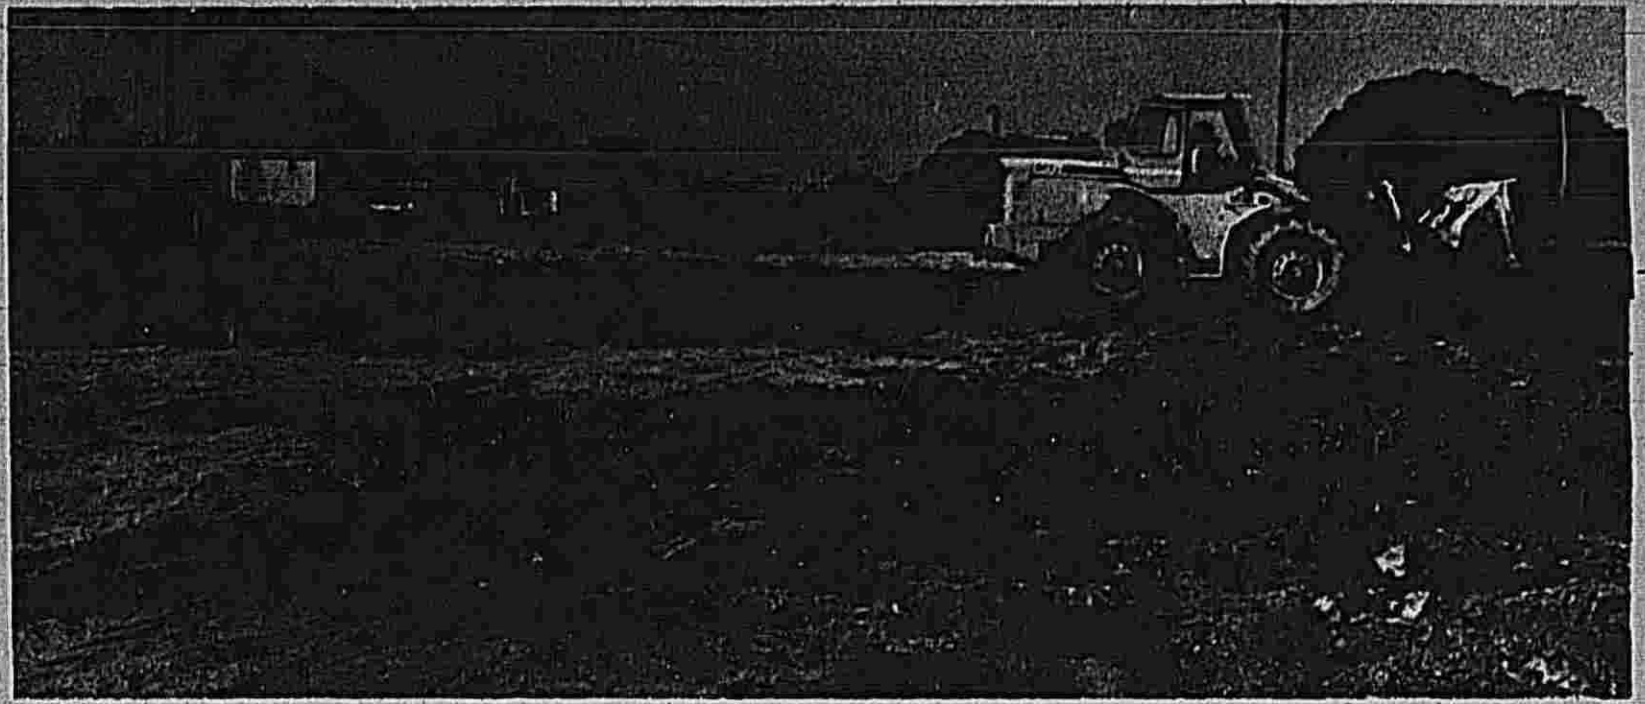

The money tree is one of 1,000 prizes the bank is giving away during the celebration. It has $50 in cash and coin on it, and, while it won't grow any more money, the $50 savings account that goes with it will. Use of a safe deposit box for one year, and a $50 checking account are included too.

The grand prize is another inflation fighter—a 15 cubic foot capacity freezer for stocking up during shortages. The freezer comes with half a beef in it (remember beef?).

Drawing for the grand and first prizes will take place just after the bank closes on Saturday, September 1. To win, contestants must register at the bank. Doing so might win one of the 998 other prizes.

Visitors will register with pens chosen from a supply at the bank. Most of the pens write in blue ink. Those that write in red, black, or green are good for prizes including coaster sets, cheese board and carving sets.

It should be easier to get to the Antioch skating pond this winter. Village crews have been filling in around the edge of the pond with dirt hauled in from the various road and sewer construction projects around town. (Staff Photo)

PETS ON PARADE

Just a few more days to August 20 when Antioch will see costumed, strutting pets led by proud owners in the second annual Costume Pet Parade.

The Antioch Welcome Wagon Newcomers Club is sponsoring this event as part of the Midnight Madness Parade. The fur people big and little, will assemble in the parking lot next to Bernadette's Arts & Crafts Store at 6:00 p.m. Judging for the prizes is to begin at 6:30 p.m. and it sure will be a difficult task—what with a dancing trio of dogs, Mother Goose and (you guessed it) br'er rabbit, feline friends, the intelligent racoon, etc., etc.

Mr. Pres Reckers of the State Bank of Antioch, Mr. LaVerne Woods of the First National Bank and Mrs. Marge Nelson of the Antioch Village Board will have the awesome job of decision making and awarding prizes.

Community participation and financial assistance for this civic use project is heartwarming. So once again, it's up to you, young citizens up to age 14 to make "Me and My Pet" a combination to be as long remembered as "Me and My Gal."

SELECTIVE SERVICE BOARD MOVING

The Selective Service Act now states that a male person is required to register 30 days prior to or 60 days after attaining his 18th birthday.

The office hours are Monday through Friday 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. A person should present himself by 4:15 p.m. for registration.

Along the Way with Annie Mae

A very pretty surprise baby shower was given for two expectant mothers on August 3rd at the home of Mrs. Don Holem with Mrs. Charles Guthrie as co-hostess. The two guests of honor, who are cousins were Mrs. Joseph Shfka of Lindenhurst, the former Myra Hawkins of Lake Marie and Mrs. Stephen Young of Waukegan, the former Kathleen Kufalk of Antioch.

Mayor Wilton spent Saturday in Springfield attending the Illinois State Fair and the annual Mayors Day conference.

Frank and Louise Johnson are still trying to catch up on their sleep! They returned last Thursday from Amburg, Germany, where they visited Linda and Terry Triplett. (Linda is Louise's niece and both she and her husband are graduates of Antioch High.) While there, they also toured Austria and Italy.

A special get well from all of us at the Antioch News to Del Jahneke who is in Illinois Research Hospital for tests. I'm sure a card or a phone call would be very much appreciated.

How about that Taffy Englehardt receiving the scholarship the High School won on WSNS-TV. Sounds fascinating, Taffy, we hope you enjoy it.

The Antioch firemen had a busy week-end (not fighting fires!) A pool party was held Saturday night and the weather was perfect, along with no mosquitos! Then on Sunday, two water fight teams went to the "County Fair" in Wilmette. They didn't win any trophies so they went to Lake Villa to cheer team number 1. You've never seen so many happy firemen as they took first place. Great work guys!! I might add, this is the 3rd year in a row for top honors at Lake Villa! You can see the teams in action this Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m. in the Village Parking Lot, as they host water fights for area teams. Also, they will be fighting Monday night at 8 p.m. for Midnight Madness. Trophies are on display at the State Bank of Antioch.

Remember Ladies!! St. Peters Salad Bar Luncheon this Saturday at 12 Noon. Tickets can be purchased at the door.

Shirley and Bob Jensen were hosts for a big family get together this weekend. Mrs. Jost, Shirley's mom, sure enjoyed seeing everyone after so long.

A few words of welcome to Miss Anna Marie Danjari who comes to visit from San Luis, Potosi, Mexico. Anna is spending her time at her grandmother's Mrs. Estell Gatch of Oakwood Knolls. She is also returning visits with Barbara Hanson. The girls have become great friends and are teaching each other many customs of their country.

Jim McLellan is having himself a super vacation. He is in Rio de Janeiro visiting his aunt and uncle for 3 weeks. These kids sure get to some exciting places.

Gigi and Jim Spittle and daughter Stacey just returned from a visit with Jim's brother and sister in Sharon Vermont. They visited Mt. Mansfield a well known ski area and drank fresh mountain water from the stream running down the mountain. While in Stowe Vermont, they also visited the Trapp family lodge.

Belated wishes go to Julie Cunningham who blew out her candles on August 13 along with the many others in the Gary's Drive area.

Belated birthday happys to Enid Bartlett who celebrated on August 12. August 19th was as popular as August 13th it seems - Joan Toft, Emily Benes, David Hahn, Father Johnson, Gary Volling, all celebrate their birthdays then. Many happy returns you guys!! Also birthday wishes to Jerry Smouse who celebrates on the 22nd.

Anniversary greetings go to Penny and Richard O'Brien who celebrate that happy day on August 18.

August and Jaroslava Kokaisl visited with their aunt Anna Kaser and cousins Tom and Rose Robinson for a day while on tour of the U.S. The couple are from West Germany

Plans are afoot to straighten out this "kink" in Poplar Avenue near the Village treatment plant. The area has already been staked out, and Village workmen will be hauling in gravel soon as a temporary measure to widen and straighten the road. Eventually, a contract will be let to pave this section, though, the Village Board has not yet taken any official action. (Staff Photo)

TROUP 92 ELECT HONORARY MEMBER

Robert Olson of 942 Whitfield, Northbrook, was elected to a Honorary Membership of Boy Scout Troop 92 of Antioch, Ill. during the Troop's Annual Encampment at Camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan.

Twenty year old Bob, a junior at Bradley University has been active in Scouting for the past ten years. He attended the summer session at the Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan Scout Reservation for four years as camper. For the last six years he has worked at the camp as counselor, mainly in the aquatics area. Hundreds of Scouts from Northeast Illinois Council owe their swimming and life saving capabilities to Bob's capable instruction.

He started his Scouting activities at the age of 11 with Troop 162 of Northbrook. He achieved the rank of Eagle and was active in the "Order of the Arrow" Scouting's Honor Camping Society. This summer the Order awarded him its highest honor, that of "Vigil" member.

Troop 92 of Antioch, Illinois periodically awards Honorary Membership to Scouts or friends of Scouting who have contributed greatly in the field of Scouting. Thus far there have been three other recipients of the Troop Neckerchief: President Nixon, Les Burslund a Scouter with 55 years in scouting, and James Mitchell of Wilmette, Illinois, an Eagle Scout and former Counselor at Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan.

AUGUST IS FAMILY PORTRAIT MONTH

before they grow up and grow away from the family group...

KEEP THE FAMILY TOGETHER IN A PORTRAIT PHOTOGRAPH

Many families are returning home in August when summer courses, camps and vacations come to an end.

Since many children go away to school and the family may not be together again until the year-end holidays, this is an ideal time to plan family activities as a group - a time to get back-to-school wardrobes together and to have a contemporary, natural portrait taken of the family by a professional photographer. A color photographic portrait has marvelous gift-giving and home-decorating possibilities.

A family portrait takes only an afternoon. The best way to go about it is to call B-J Rush Studio at 395-5554, decide on an afternoon and make plans together.

You will want to decide whether the portrait should be indoors or out. Many suburban families prefer to have an environmental portrait photograph done on their property or in an attractive near-by location. For instance, your family can be photographed as a group on the tennis court, ice-skating in an indoor rink or at a local park. Any of these create an appealing setting for an action portrait.

If the portrait is to be done in the studio, we will place the family into a warm, natural grouping, designed to look relaxed and happy, rather than formally posed.

Once the color portrait is complete, everyone can go over the proofs together to make an appropriate selection. A 16x20 print of this type of photographic art is especially attractive when placed over a sofa or fireplace as the focal point of a room. B-J Rush Studios can advise you about appropriate framing. A portrait photograph of your family can be used also as a warm personal Christmas card, or for birthday or anniversary gifts for family members.

For a special surprise when the portrait prints are ordered, give Dad a large family portrait for his office with a tailored leather or suede frame - or save it and let Santa put it under the tree.

DR. A'S MINI-TALES

Rick Meets a Wizard

Rick Rogers was going to run away from home. He was packing now. But suddenly there was a tapping on his window. Parked outside -- in mid air -- was an old-fashioned surrey. The window opened, and an old man with a beard stepped into Rick's room. "How would you like to be an apprentice Wizard?" he asked. And off they flew in the surrey. The Wizard showed Rick how to solve problems with magic. In a lake a boy was drowning. The Wizard pointed his staff at a tall tree and cracked it with a lightning bolt. The tree fell into the water, and the boy pulled himself along the trunk to safety. Then they flew to a small village. The people were starving. There had been no rain, and their crops were dying in the fields. "It's your turn," said the Wizard. Rick didn't know much about magic, but he knew some things that the Wizard didn't. He pointed the staff at the ground, and a bag of silver iodide crystals appeared. Then they flew up into the clouds, and Rick sprinkled the crystals out the window. "That's how they make rain these days," he told the Wizard. And sure enough, it started to rain. The people rushed out of their houses and danced and cheered. "That's enough for this trip," said the Wizard as he took Rick home. "But I'll be back again soon."

Pat Harland is home now after having surgery last week in Victory Memorial Hospital. Pat is feeling very well, and helping her to recuperate was a very welcome visit from son Mike who has been working this summer at Camp Ma Ka Ja Wan Boy Scout Camp in Pearson, Wisconsin. Both Mike and George Pierce came home for the weekend to visit their families and friends. The boys returned to camp on Sunday to finish the summer work and will be returning the end of August.

Bud and Frances Baker hosted a lawn party Saturday nite for many of their neighborhood friends. The evening was beautiful, the food delicious and the mosquitoes left us all alone. Who could ask for more?

Another 10 speed bike was stolen over the weekend. This time the bike belonged to Bonnie Weiss and it was stolen out of their locked basement.

The United Way of Lake County has announced the appointment of four staff members to direct and implement the newly developed Retired Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP). Already at work on the formative stages of the program are Miss Elizabeth Behr, Director; Bill Loblaw, Chief Community Liaison; Gaston DeShryver, Community Liaison; and Mrs. Martin Terlap, Secretary-Bookkeeper.

RSVP is funded locally by the United Way of Lake County, and nationally by ACTION, to develop significant volunteer service opportunities for persons of retirement age.

Volunteer opportunities exist in such areas as clerical work, hospital gift carts and information desks, counseling, child care, emergency homemaking, and probation. Each volunteer will be provided a reimbursement to cover transportation expenses and meals taken during volunteer hours.

With a Stern eye

Someone said it that day—I'm not sure who because I was writing so fast—but someone said it. In all the hassle ever whether the meeting was properly called, someone said: "Is this a duly constipated meeting?"

My friends, it certainly was. And in case that specially called County Board meeting escaped your notice, let me give it to you on the head of a pin—with a little history to place it in its own bizarre perspective.

In the fall of 1970, the County Board hired William W. Maxey to head up its Building and Zoning Department and to be Zoning Enforcement Officer. Bill Maxey is small and dapper, with wings of grey at the temples; he has a degree in Architecture and a Master's in Management as well as several years experience in private practice as an Architect. His credentials for the job were impeccable. And once hired, his administration was also impeccable. In an office often clouded by the suspicion that zoning could be bought, Bill Maxey wore his integrity like a badge of office, proudly.

So what happened?? There are several versions, none of them definitive; all that is certain is that Maxey soon rose to the top of Board Chairman Ron Coles' Enemies List. At one point about a year ago, he was removed from the payroll by order of the Chairman. The press, the public and enough members of the County Board rose in protest, and the order was withdrawn.

In 1972, when the 'new' Board was elected, Chairman Coles was reelected as head of that body in one of the murkiest campaigns on record. The 13th vote—i.e., the majority making vote—was cast by John Balen, 2nd District. As a quid pro quo, Balen was named to chair the powerful Building and Zoning Committee. Now Balen had been a member of the Lake County Board before—from 1961 to 1965. That was the 'old' Board and one that I remember well from my own years on it, the Board where clout and intimidation were effective substitutes for reason and persuasion. Balen tempered in that early fire, is a valiant friend and a formidable foe, as Maxey is disvoering.

At the June 1973 Board meeting, the Balen Committee brought in a resolution creating the position of Executive Director of the Building, Planning and Zoning Department, at a salary of $22,000 per annum. A second resolution appointed John K. Anderson to the position. Nowhere in what has ensued, is there the smallest hint that Anderson is not an irreproachable selection. He just happened to be standing too close, poor soul.

Both resolutions passed, with amendments made by Maxey's friends on the Board which restored to him his duties as Zoning Enforcement officer. But they had apparently missed a clause or a phrase somewhere, because Balen immediately called Maxey in and stripped him of all authority; he couldn't fire him without going through the Board, but he could reduce his duties to sharpening pencils, and that's about what he had in mind.

It was at this juncture that Board members Tom Hayward, Norm Geary and Mike Graham circulated the 'special call' for a meeting "to reconsider the resolution" which created the Executive Director position "and the appointment of J.K. Anderson" to that position. It was at this point that the quandary arose about whether the meeting was duly constipa-

CLC OFFERS 3 CREDIT FILM APPRECIATION COURSE

The College of Lake County is offering a three credit general studies course in film appreciation during the fall semester.

Entitled "Movie-Medium and Message: An Introduction to Film Study," the course will explore various aspects of visual communication found in the film medium with an emphasis on "how" a movie means.

Using feature-length and short films, the course will cover western, comedy, animation, and documentary films in a lecture-viewing-discussion format.

CLC's fall classes begin August 27.

ted—uh—constituted.

Among the high spots at that meeting—other than the air of impending bloodshed and the freely exchanged threats to file lawsuits—was the presence of three State's Attorneys: Hoogasian himself, Bill Marlatt and Julius Abler. Their nodding, conferring presence on the dais successfully blocked egress to the Ladies Room for some.

The intention of the mavericks finally became clear—they hoped to reconsider and then defeat the resolution which created the position, thereby leaving Maxey still in charge of the Building and Zoning Department. They intended to follow up with a resolution placing Anderson in the position of Director of Regional Planning.

There was a particularly angry exchange between the Chairman and Geary when Coles, acting on the triple threat advice of counsel, ruled that Geary could not appeal a particular decision of the Chair. John Balen furiously challenged Joe Dassing's right to sit on the Board at all; he had been late in filing his Statement of Economic Interests. In fact in the course of that morning, I thought Balen would punch any one of a number of people. Helen Amendola, vice chairman of Building and Zoning, her face contorted with rage, excoriated everyone for knowing so little and saying so much. In the end, they voted the Executive Director's position into some administrative limbo, but were prevented by the battery of attorneys from voting him into the position they had planned for him (there had been no mention in the call of such action, was the legal explanation). Thus by adjournment (and there were roll calls on that subject alone!) they had saved Maxey, at least momentarily, but placed Anderson the Innocent Bystander, in jeopardy; he had no job.

Joe Welch, silver haired former dean of the Board, now retired, sat in the gallery shaking his head in disbelief. "Never have seen anything like it," he said bemused. "Never!"

Ah there, Joe. You've forgotten....

"Hindsight's Better Than Foresight"

The Village of Antioch like most communities has a mayor. The mayor is the person responsible for the unification of the people. He is the servant of the people on civic matters. His responsibilities are varied and awesome.

The Christian Community has a person who is likewise responsible for the unity of those who believe and are baptized. Just as in politics a man is singled out to administer to the people of the community by election, a man in religion is singled out for ministering to God's people by ordination. In some Christian Churches ordination is accepted as a sacrament and like the other sacraments has its unique sign signifying the dedication of a man to the service of God's people.

The priest or minister is responsible for the relationship of God and men. A special oil is used for the sign of the sacrament signifying the total dedication of the individual to the establishing and intensifying the relationships of God with man - man with God. He willingly gives his life and then this dedication in celebrated in the Sacrament of Holy Orders. The oil is the sign of the east of that total confidence, practice and faith that have become ingrained in this man's life. The Sacrament of Holy Orders is a completion of Baptism and Confirmation.

This leader of the Christian Community is to be an ideal witness of the teaching of Jesus Christ. His duties are also varied and awesome. His is a tremendous task and his greatest satisfaction is in being a true witness of Jesus Christ along with the Christian Community he is appointed to serve. He needs his people to fulfill himself in the vocation he has chosen to save his own soul.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

What are the demands of God-given freedom? This question will be considered Sunday at Christian Science church services in a Lesson-Sermon entitled "Soul".

In St. Matthew 8 we read of Jesus healing of the centurion's servant, even though he wasn't with him at the time. "Knowing that Soul and its attributes were forever manifested through man, the Master healed the sick, gave sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf, feet to the lame, thus bringing to light the scientific action of the divine Mind on human minds and bodies and giving a better understanding of Soul and salvation", a citation to be read from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy.

Services at First Church of Christ, Scientist, BEACON HILL, Rte 173 and Harden, Antioch, Illinois, begin at 11 a.m. All are welcome.

"MAN'S EXTREMITY IS GOD'S OPPORTUNITY."

Listen this Sunday to the Christian Science Radio Series for some interesting insights on this question.

Dr. Hasselbring is emphasizing Billy Graham's frequently quoted statement: "If it were not for the prayers of God's people the world over, all our preparations for crusades would be useless." This series of prayer breakfasts will climax on Monday, September 3, with a mass event at Illinois Beach Lodge in Zion where the mayors, town managers, and community officials from all towns and cities in Lake County will be special guests. Lane Adams will give his prelude message of the ten day crusade to follow at this final breakfast.

HARRIS SWEEPS KENOSHA FAIR RACES AT WILMOT

Whitey Harris, Lake Villa, had the right combination of conditions, gambled by power driving the outside on the backstretch, and took the lead and the win in the Kenosha County Fair Championship race. He had won also on the previous night but not nearly as easy as he made it seem on Saturday night. Harris had nearly a full straight-away lead over point leader Dick Duston, Greenfield at the end.

Harris started sixth in the 16 car field and Duston 15th. Ron Marish again set fast time at 17.99 seconds and he wound up third in the feature. Tom Anderson, Antioch in his mid-engine modified, found the slick track well suited for his car and ran second for much of the race leading a group of close races composed of Ron Bergsma, Richmond, Bay Darnell, Deerfield and George Uttech, Kenosha.

At the end Anderson was fourth; Bergsma fifth and Darnell sixth ahead of Uttech; Larry Ninneman, Milwaukee; Jim Bozeman, Waukegan; and Dave Bliss, Crystal Lake.

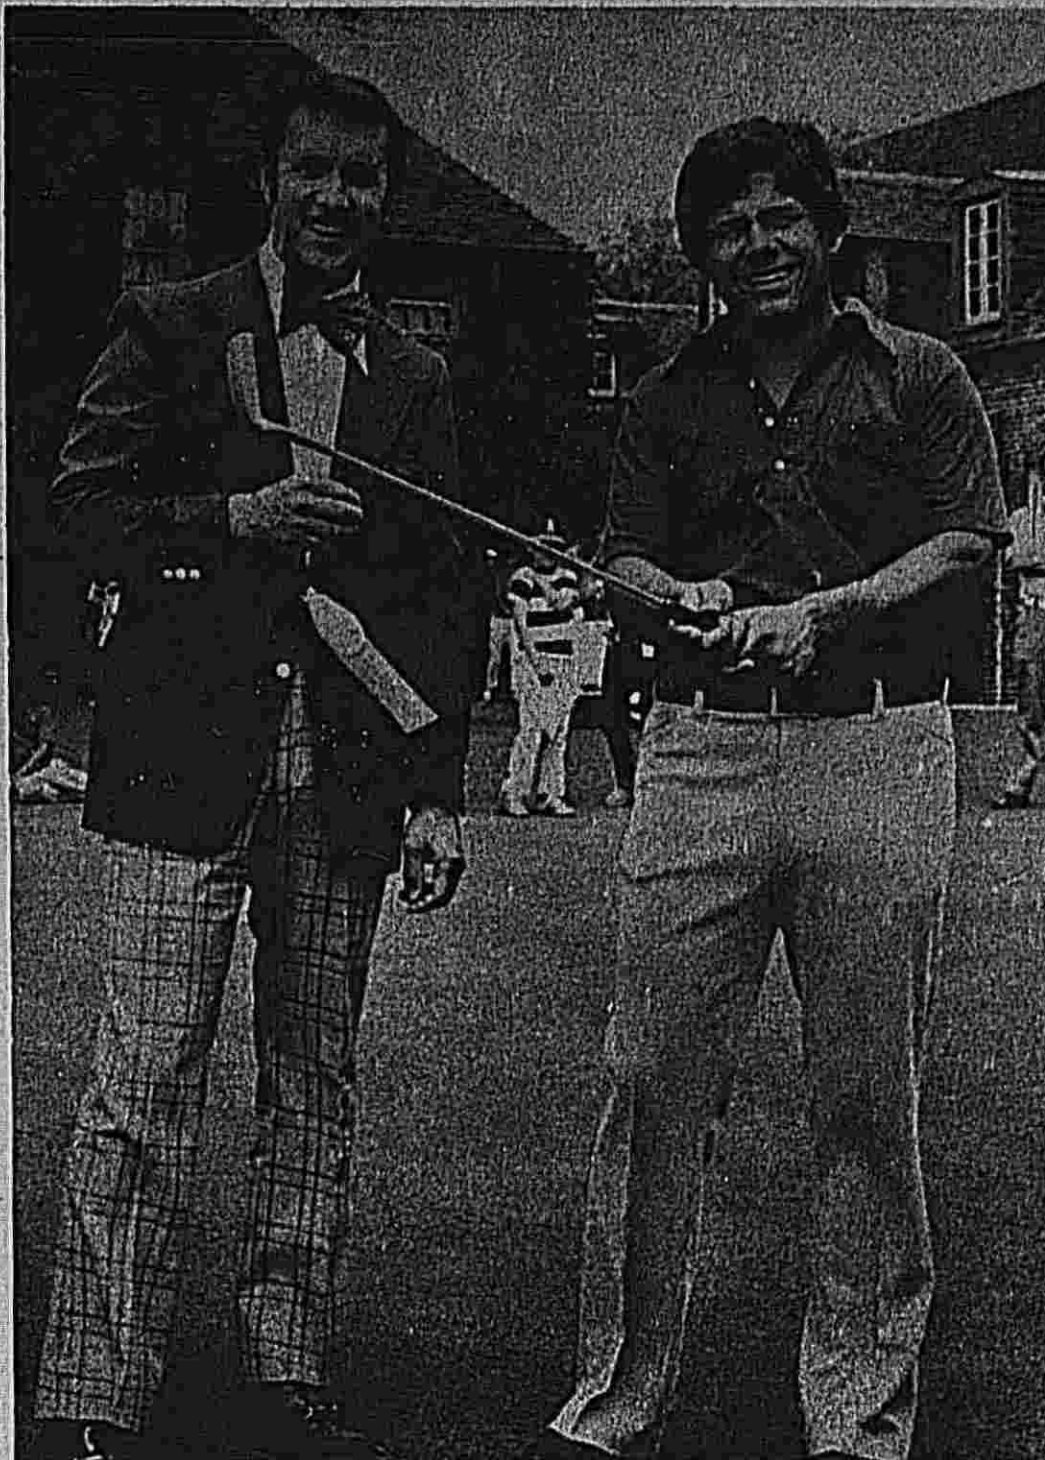

Bruce Young, Kansasville won the 15 lap semi-feature over Gary Weise, Twin Lakes and Bob Layland, Crystal Lake. Ray Dropp, Palatine won the consolation race.

Ten lap heats were won by Roger Otto, Burlington; Stanley Horton, Hales Corners; Carmen Menzard, Antioch and Bill Klein, Burlington. The fourth heat race was red flagged when Jay Jamerson, Winthrop Harbor flipped over and was knocked unconscious. His engine continued to run as the car wound up on it's side and safety men had to switch it off before lifting Jamerson from the car. In a few minutes he regained consciousness and remained at the track announcing he was OK.

The Sportsman feature race was a near dead heat as Butch Mirendorpf edged just inches ahead of Gordy Mudfull, Lake Mills for the win. Joe Gresk, Caladonia was third.

The semi-feature was won by Bob Steinmetz, Kenosha and heats were won by Ray Dobbs, Oconomowoc; Gresk and Dan Rousch, Kenosha.

The win for Harris was his fourth at Wilmot, sixth overall but failed to move him closer in the point standings as Duston wound up still holding a 49 point lead. Duston actually gained four points in the night over Harris. Marish gave up three points to Harris to stay third in the standings while Otto slipped back 23 points behind Marish but still in fourth place.

THREE RACE NIGHTS AT WAUKEGAN SPEEDWAY

Promoter Gordon Sill has announced an ambitious three night schedule of races over Labor Day weekend offering fans three different types of competition. A demolition derby program on Friday, a 50-lap sportsman race Saturday and Twin 30-lap super stock races on Sunday will highlight the weekend. Races start at 8:00.

Friday's added program will consist of hobby stock races and several preliminary heat races for the demo drivers before the big grand finale. The demo cars will be divided into groups with each group racing for money and prizes. Then everybody still able to run will get a last chance in the big last event.

Saturday's 50-lap late model sportsman event will have added significance since added points ride on the race. Currently Ted Richter, George Dukas and J. P. Gatti are in a virtual tie for the point lead.

The late model super stocks will wrap-up their season on Sunday night September 2 competing in a special card topped by two 30-lap feature races. Championship points will be kept through that night's races with the top ten drivers for the super stock season receiving their trophies and awards immediately after the races.

The Twin-30's will for the third year carry lap prizes, this year with the first, second and third place cars in each lap shring in the cash. Previous winners in the "Twin" races were Carl Major who won both ends in 1971 and J.P. Gatti who likewise was a double winner in 1972.

The Waukegan Speedway is located 1/4-mile east of Route 41 on Washington Street near Waukegan. The track's information phone is (312) 662-8200.

SORCE RETURNS TO LAKE GENEVA IRA MOD WIN CIRCLE

Don Sorce, West Allis, Wisconsin, returned to the winners circle tonight for the third time this season at the Lake Geneva Raceway in Interstates Racing Association super modified stock car racing. He led every lap of the feature and was closely followed by Larry Ninneman, Milwaukee and Bob Layland, Crystal Lake throughout every lap. In the back though there was a lot of passing as fast time qualifier Johnny Reimer, Caladonia moved steadily from the back to pass cars on the outside.

He started 16th but by the 10th lap was 9th; 7th on the 15th; 6th on the 20th and 4th, where he finished on the 24th lap. Fifth was Denny McKay, Elgin and then it was Roger Otto, Burlington, Dick Duston, Greenfield, Dave Bliss, Crystal Lake, Whitey Harris, Lake Villa and Jim Bozeman, Waukegan rounding out the top ten.

Roger Otto continued to hold onto his lead in point standings and even added another 9 points in his lead over Whitey Harris. Johnny Reimer gained 23 points but still trails Harris by 107 points and Sorce moved from sixth to fourth in the point standings.

HARRIS THRILLS TEENS WITH KENOSHA FAIR WIN

Whitey Harris, Lake Villa, drove the Nielsen Super modified to the IRA 30 lap feature race win at the Kenosha County Speedway in Wilmot on Friday night and thrilled thousands of teenagers with his wheel to wheel racing action.

The teenagers were admitted free as guests of the Kenosha County Fair for the special teen night races of IRA Super modifieds and Sportsman stock cars. The teens really "turned it on" for the thrilling wheel to wheel battle between Harris and Wilmot point leader Dick Duston, Greefield as they traded off the front spot on six different exchanges. Even at the end, Duston pulled up to challenge and finished only a few inches behind Harris.

Roger Otto, Burlington finished a distant third and then it was Jim Bozeman, Waukegan; Dave Bliss, Crystal Lake; fast qualifier Ron Marish, Milwaukee; Jim Fiscus, Madison; Larry Ninneman, Milwaukee and Bay Darnell, Deerfield, rounding out the top ten and all finishing in a tight group.

Jim Moulis, Antioch, had his car damaged in a minor collision with another car in the warm up period and took over the Russell MacFadden super modified to win the 15 lap semi-feature.

Ten lap heats were won by Otto; Duston; Tom Anderson, Antioch and Don Sorce, West Allis. The Sportsman feature finish was just as close as the super modified finish as Ron Fryer, Milwaukee, stayed just ahead of point leader Ray Dobbs, Oconomowoc and Duke Norton, McHenry.

Sportsman heats were won by Joe Gresk, Caladonia; Randy Rygh, Racine; and Monty Lowery, Antioch. Bob Loucke, Antioch, won the 12 lap semi-feature.

The win for Harris was his third at Wilmot and his 5th on the IRA Circuit. He trails Duston by 42 points for the season Championship honors at Wilmot with the twin 50 lap features ending point racing on Saturday September 1. Open competition racing starts on September 8 and continues, ending with a super modified national on Saturday and Sunday, September 15 and 16.
